Annex to the note verbale dated 15 May 2008 from the Permanent Mission of Cuba to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

Havana, 7 May 2008

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Cuba presents its compliments to the President of the United Nations Security Council and has the honour to inform him that its relations with the Islamic Republic of Iran are consistent with the provisions of Security Council resolution 1803 (2008), adopted on 3 March 2008.

Pursuant to article 98 of the Constitution of the Republic of Cuba, the Government of the Republic of Cuba has circulated an instruction to all central State institutions notifying them of the adoption of Security Council resolution 1803 (2008) and requiring strict compliance with its provisions.

Moreover, the Government of the Republic of Cuba has established a national coordination mechanism in which all relevant national institutions participate, under the leadership of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which is responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of Security Council resolutions 1737 (2006), 1747 (2007) and 1803 (2008). The mechanism will continue to operate for as long as these resolutions remain in force.
